

any of the lands within the village which may be occupied and used as farms or may be part or parts of farms, such lands shall be valued and assessed as lots of four acres of ground, with the buildings and improvements thereon, and shall not be valued and assessed by the number of acres therein.

Ibid s. 20 Appeal from assessment.

185. If any owner of property within said village shall feel aggrieved by the assessment so made, he may appeal to the board of commissioners, who may make such deduction from the valuation of his property as they deem reasonable and just.

Ibid s. 21.
Appointment of bailiff, &c.

186. The said board of commissioners may from time to time, under such conditions as they may by their ordinances direct, appoint such officers as they may deem necessary to carry into effect their ordinances, among whom shall be a town bailiff who shall ex officio be collector of the town tax, and shall within said village have all the authority of a constable.

Ibid s. 22.
Bailiff to give bond.

187. The said bailiff shall give bond, to be approved by the county commissioners, as other constables, for the faithful performance of his duty as constable, and also bond to the said board of commissioners for the faithful performance of his duty as bailiff, and as collector of the taxes, and the faithful performance of such duties as shall be imposed on him by the ordinances of said board of commissioners.

His duties.

Ibid s. 23.
To collect taxes.

188. The said bailiff may enforce the payment of corporation taxes in the same manner and with like effect as collectors of state and county taxes may enforce the payment of the same.

Ibid. s. 24
Oath of officers.

189. The president of said commissioners and all other officers of said town, shall before they enter upon the duties of their respective offices, severally take the following oath: I do solemnly swear that I will faithfully execute the office of ——— to the best of my knowledge and ability, without favor, affection or partiality.